Rachel Patten

Area of Expertise

As Financial Analyst for Colliers Indianapolis Capital Markets team, Rachel Patten prepares in-depth property and financial analysis. She performs a wide array of data-financial tasks such as developing pro-forma financials, sophisticated financial spreadsheet modeling, and gathering and evaluating economic, demographic and real estate market data.

Prior to joining Colliers, Rachel gained invaluable investment experience with CBRE Capital Markets, specializing in industrial and multi-family investment sales.

Rachel has an impressive goal-oriented attitude and team-driven approach. As a former member of the Butler Women's Tennis team – and selected to the Big East All-Academic Team – she thrives in a competitive all-hands-in style to deliver exceptional client service.
